PROFILE

I love writing. My goal is to entertain millions with smart, humorous copy and a strong voice. I want people to know they're reading a Reed Tucker story when they read it. I'm good at finding unusual angles on stories – both for print and for the web - and executing them in a readable way. I'm also great at generating ideas and can write on almost any topic.

WORK

2019-present — FREELANCE WRITER
Writing for newspapers, the web and books.

2018 — CONTENT EDITOR
Google
Edited summaries for News app. Curated questions for "Cameos," in which celebrities answer top Google search queries.

2006-2016 — SENIOR FEATURES WRITER
New York Post
Penned sharp print and web stories for entertainment section. Interviewed celebrities. Bravely ate NYC's most dubious entrees. Visited state's UFO capital. Was forced to watch Macaulay Culkin's pizza-themed band.

2000-2005 — STAFF WRITER
Time Out New York magazine
Wrote about everything that makes NYC great: movies, food, nightlife and ridiculous rent.

1996-1999 — ADVERTISING COPYWRITER
Various NYC agencies
Created print and TV ads for Cuervo, A&E and the US Open. Lost soul.

EDUCATION

1991-1995 — BA, JOURNALISM
University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill
Minor in German. (Please note: Go Heels!)
